N. Y. Press: "This excessive revenue must be reduced," was the demand of public opinion on both sides in 1888. Well, the Republican Fifty-first Congress reduced it. The customs receipts for October, 1890, were $24,984,461, although that month included but six days of the old tariff. The customs receipts for the whole October month of 1891, however,

Which is better, now, frankly, to make that reduction by letting in goods that compete with home labor, or by reducing the importations of such goods and then the importations of such goods and the cold air then, as it enters the mouth, increasing the market for home labor! strikes against the under surface of the A Cough Ask yourself that question without preju-

Strange as it may seem, in Idaho the Democrats joined with the Republicans, and, with a united voice, declared that they would defeat the Constitution if it did not contain this test oath, as the Congressional Record will show.

WE WILL WIN.

The opinion expressed by Hon. Henry H.: Hyde, Massachusetts' member of the Republican National Committee, that the Republicans will win in the next contest, is one shared by the country at large.

The wise and conservative course of President Harrison during the three years of his administration has given such general satisfaction, that not only do the Republicans feel confident of success, but the Democrats are absolutely left without a fighting this precaution. The American drawing chance,

Not a single act of the president has given offense to the people of the Nation, and the entire administration has been that of a wise diplomat and a statesman able to intelligently cope with the various perplexing questions that are constantly arising in a great government like ours.

With a clean record the Republican party goes into the next campaign with the battle half won, which fact is realized by no one more fully than by the Demograts.

Yes, we will win next year! We will win because we are right, and the Democrats are wrong! We will win because we are for America and the Democrats are for England! We will win because we are for protection to American labor and American industries, and the Democrats are not! We will win because President Harrison bas given us a clean record, and there will be no excuses or apologies to make!

It will be an easy walk-over for the Republicans next year, and we are really sorry that the campaign will be devoid of the excitement that a close contest would furnish.
